Pupil's name:	Subject: Geography	Half term: 1 2 3 4 5 6
Unit Title:	Population and Migration

Task description:

To produce a magazine article investigating China's One Child Policy. As you are completing your newspaper article you should consider the following:

- When and where was the policy introduced, including the scale?
- Why was the policy introduced?
- What strategies (no more than 3) were introduced to reduce population growth?
- What effect did the policy have – on people, the economy, and the environment? Positive and negative?
- How successful was the policy in meeting its aims?

Core knowledge	Core skills
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Detailed use of place specific detail i.e. facts and figures</li> <li>• Explanation of each aspect of the task – students likely to use PEE to structure response</li> <li>• Balanced between different aspects of the task</li> <li>• A judgement is made on the overall success of the One Child Policy</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Students appropriately use case study information to answer the question and provide comparative data when possible. Explanations for differences given. There is an understanding of the scale of the case study (global, national, and local). There is a clear appreciation of positive and negative points linked to the case study with a balanced view.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Explanation of different aspects of the task i.e. students explain why the government introduced the policy, how it as introduced, the positive and negative impacts, and begin to make an overall judgement of how successful the policy was.</li> <li>• Evidence of place specific detail i.e. facts and figures</li> <li>• Likely to be unbalanced between different aspects of the task</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Students use various pieces of case study information to link these and provide explanations for these facts. There is reference to the scale of the case study (global, national, and local). There is an appreciation of positive and negative points linked to the case study, but there is a bias to this.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Descriptive information about the One Child Policy which begins to explain and links information together e.g. the government were concerned about the size of the population so made it illegal for couples to have more than one child.</li> <li>• Recognises that there are positive (birth rate has been reduced) and negative (unbalanced population structure) aspects of the case study</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Students provide case study information and begin to offer explanations and link information. There is a mention of positive and/or negative points linked to the case study.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Descriptive information about the One Child Policy e.g. When it was introduced? / A reason why it was introduced / a success and / or failure of the policy</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Students provide various pieces of case study information but none are linked or explained.</li> </ul>

Carol Dweck's Growth Mindset

- Carol Dweck has conducted research over the last 35 years with children and young adults
- She is particularly interested in how pupils view themselves as learners
- Their self-theory is likely to have a major effect on their self belief, motivation to learn and resilience
- Her research is world renowned and adopted by parents, teachers, business leaders, relationship experts and sports coaches

VS

Fixed mind-set

Leads to a desire to look smart and therefore a tendency to:

AVOID CHALLENGES

GIVE UP EASILY

SEE EFFORT AS FRUITLESS OR WORSE

IGNORE USEFUL FEEDBACK

FEEL THREATENED BY THE SUCCESS OF OTHERS

CHALLENGES

OBSTACLES

EFFORT

CRITICISM

SUCCESS OF OTHERS

Growth mind-set

Leads to a desire to learn and therefore a tendency to:

EMBRACE CHALLENGES

PERSIST IN THE FACE OF SET BACKS

SEE EFFORT AS A PATH TO MASTERY

LEARN FROM CRITICISM

FIND LESSONS AND INSPIRATION IN THE SUCCESS OF OTHERS

Mindset Rule 1

Fixed Mindset:

LOOK SMART AT ALL COSTS

Growth Mindset:

LEARN AT ALL COSTS

Mindset Rule 2

Fixed Mindset:

IT SHOULD COME NATURALLY

Growth Mindset:

WORK HARD, EFFORT IS KEY

Mindset Rule 3

Fixed Mindset: 'It's about me'

HIDE MISTAKES
CONCEAL DEFICIENCIES

Growth Mindset: 'It's about learning'

CAPITALISE ON MISTAKES
CONFRONT DEFICIENCIES

Growth mind-set in action

- Reading regularly
- Arriving to lessons well-prepared
- Maintaining excellent attendance
- Home learning completed on time and to a high standard
- Asking questions to improve understanding

Growth mind-set in action

- Respond to teacher's feedback in books and lessons
- Never waste time talking in lessons
- Find out how other people have achieved high marks
- Reflect on success: What was it that made you succeed?
