2. Main Responsibilities of the Role

Learning and Teaching

- To model the highest possible standards of teaching at all times.
- To understand the needs of all groups of learners in your classes, and being responsible for their progress and development.
- To ensure effective and personalised support for learning for all students in your classes.
- To define and implement intervention or development strategies to ensure all students work consistently and effectively to their personal best.
- To promote the aims, objectives, ethos and public image of the department, establishing the highest standards of attainment, attendance, behaviour and commitment for all students.

Curriculum

- To promote cross curricular themes within the curriculum, in line with school expectations and priorities.
- To keep up-to-date with national developments in Business Studies, pedagogy and methodology.

- To create and source a variety of well selected, appropriate resources in order to facilitate effective learning and teaching.
- To ensure that assessment is robust and in line with school expectations, standardising assessed work across the department.
- To develop a shared understanding with parents and carers of the curriculum, approach to learning and the standards of work expected, establishing a partnership which involves them in their child's learning as well as providing information about attainment, progress and targets.

Other specific responsibilities

- To operate at all times within the school's Equal Opportunities framework
- To take responsibility for implementing the school's safeguarding and child protection policies and procedures, demonstrating a commitment to promoting and safeguarding the welfare of our students.
- To act in accordance with the school Health and Safety policy, taking responsibility for all Computing teaching environments and adhering to/developing relevant risk assessments.
- To comply with the school's Data Protection policy.
- To participate in training and other learning activities, including sharing of good practice and participation in internal training sessions.
- To undertake such other duties and responsibilities deemed reasonable, as may be determined by the Headteacher or nominated representative (in conjunction with the post holder).

This list of duties is not exhaustive and may be reviewed by the Headteacher/SLT/Head of Department at any time, in accordance with the evolving needs of the role
